

No sane man will deny that Congress has the power to abolish the odious traffic (the slave trade) in the District of Columbia. — Lexington Advertiser.

And no sane man who reads your articles will doubt that you are on the wrong side of Mason & Dixon's line—and that the sooner you "set foot from off the soil of a slave State" the better. — Southern Appeal.

THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE

EDITED BY LEWIS GILBERT CLARKE.

This is pronounced, by the press of America and England, "the best Magazine in America." It has now completed its thirty-fourth volume, and in its list of upward of a hundred contributors, are found the names of every distinguished writer, male and female, in America, with several equally prominent of Great Britain, Turkey, Sweden, etc. A new volume will commence with the first day of January, 1850.—The following notices of the KNICKERBOCKER are from the American and English press, to which might be added hundreds of others.

The last Knickerbocker is exceedingly good. Some of the articles are worthy of BLACKWOOD's palmiest days. The Editor's table is in Mr. Clark's happiest vein; varied and racy in a remarkable degree.—N. Y. Commercial Adv.

The Knickerbocker seems to increase in attraction as it advances in age. It exhibits a monthly variety of contributions unsurpassed in number or ability.—Nat. Intelligencer.

The Knickerbocker is one of the most valuable Magazines of the day, and outstrips all competition in the higher walks of literature.—Albany Argus.

The Knickerbocker Magazine is now beyond a question the magazine of the country. Whoever wishes his money's worth, and something over, let him subscribe now to "Old Knick," and our word for it, the Editor's Table alone will amply satisfy his expectations. It is not a periodical to be lightly glanced over and thrown by, but it forms a library book to save and re-read. A set of the Knickerbocker, bound up in volumes, on the shelves of one of our popular libraries, is more consulted (so the librarian has often told us) than any other similar work.—Boston Daily Transcript.

THE LONDON EXAMINER.—This very clever Magazine is the pleasantest periodical in the United States. Its articles, which are numerous and short, various and interesting, are well worthy of imitation by our Magazines on this side of the Atlantic.

LONDON MORNING CHRONICLE.—Judging from the numbers before us, we are inclined to consider this the best of all the American literary periodicals. Its contents are highly interesting, instructive and amusing.

Reduction in price to Clubs.

The publisher has determined to do every thing in his power to bring the Knickerbocker within the means of all, and invites the attention of those who feel an interest in circulating the best American literature, to the following terms to clubs, viz:

For 5 copies to one address, $20 00
" 10 " " " 35 00
" 20 " " " 60 00

Post Masters throughout the United States are invited and requested to act as agents. To all those who may interest themselves in getting up clubs, we will send a copy FREE so long as they keep up, and remit regularly the yearly payment.

To the Subscribers and all interested in our Work.

The publisher desires to avail himself of this opportunity to thank those who have manifested their unabated interest in the Knickerbocker, by sending subscribers. Quite a number have done so, and no doubt with a very slight effort on the part of some friends, our list might be doubled. As a further inducement for this effort on the part of our patrons, we wish to say, that no pains or expense will be spared to enhance the value of the work, and our pages will prove that our readers will receive at least as large a share of benefit from our increased means as we could expect ourselves.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE.
